New Business:

Old Business:

Memory Makers

- Although this event is cancelled for this year, we are still collecting remedies and researching farms of our area as much as what we can.
- Old Fashion remedies used by previous generations (some research collected, if the members have any additional information, please send to Carrie)
- Carrie submitted some remedies already, but we are still collecting
- Pat shared that she has a day book covering Special Poisons and Additives (circa 1916). We will need to make copies of varies items in this book.

Registry

- Work will be conducted once the Library and Cultural Center is open

Zebulun Masonic Lodge (Coolbaugh Mansion)

- This presentation is on hold until after the pandemic.

Covid-19

- How did Covid-19 effect Real Estate, Teachers and Students, Local MST businesses, Private Communities, Local Government, Tourists, What is the new normal.

- Gather information from your neighbors, friends and family. If possible interview local business owners, learn how this has impacted their business and what does the future hold for them. MST Historical Commission will document these reports and save them to our archives for future reference and history.
- Rachel suggested that we could put an article in the newsletter asking for submissions and how important documenting this time is.

Discussion: We will be meeting on July 7, 2020 at 4pm to tour the Library and Cultural Center.
